The third and final beach scurry of the year judged by Catherine Peters was held at Le Braye on 7th July in perfect Summer weather. Eleven ponies and one horse were shared between nineteen competitors with thirteen clear rounds in the trotting scurry and twelve in the any pace event. The winner of the small pony class in the trotting scurry was Felicity Rabet with Pip, the only competitor to get round the course in under a minute and still win with five penalty points added. In the other three classes David Gallichan and Laura Vetier won both driving Charlie whilst Kieran O'Connor driving Hermes won the junior class.

Competition was very close in the any pace scurry with .01 second difference between Felicity Rabet the winner of the small pony class and Rachelle Bownes driving Hermes. The larger pony class was won by Shelia Vetier driving her pony Charlie with Carl Gallichan winning the novice class driving Homer. The juniors placed in the same order as in the trotting scurry with Kieran O'Connor completing the course in under a minute with Ellie Carre and Kim Gallichan not far behind.
